Dear brethren:

As I write this letter of gratitude, our students are knocking on doors, inviting people to study the Bible with them, or to enroll in a Bible correspondence course, and to come hear the Truth proclaimed. These fine preacher students (divided into four groups) are working in Trenton, Missouri; Columbus, Mississippi; Pulaski, Tennessee; and Bankston, Alabama. They are using time that would have been a break week; that is, time off from studies for them, in order to work in these campaigns. Already this week, they have knocked on thousands of doors, and have had a very good response. For that, we are truly thankful. We trust many souls will be saved because of their efforts to bring people to Christ.

At MSOP, we emphasize that preaching is not about the preacher's having a big name, a big church, or a big salary – preaching is about saving souls. Everything we do is toward that end; thus, we diligently work to prepare men to be soul winners. We rejoice that we have students who have dedicated themselves to just that, winning souls, and who put sixty hours (or more) into Bible study, memorizing Scripture, and the many things, including getting the practical experience so necessary, that one must do in order to become a good preacher.

Thank you for helping them, and for helping MSOP. We could not do it without you. Please keep praying for us. We love and appreciate you.

Sincerely,

Bobby Liddell
